The Souls Who Live in the Divine Will Surrounded and Consoled Jesus at His Birth.

Volume 13 – December 25, 1921 – "...do you, Luisa, Know who was the First, after My Mama, whom I, Jesus, Called with My Tears to be Close to Me in My Very Manger, to Pour Myself Out in Love? It was you, Luisa, - the little Daughter of My Divine Will. You were so little as to surpass My Dear Mama in littleness, So Much So, that I was Able to Keep you Near Me, in My Own Manger, and I could Pour My Tears into your heart. These Tears Sealed My Divine Will in you, and Constituted you Legitimate daughter of My Divine Will. My Heart Rejoiced in Seeing All that My Will Had Delivered in Creation Coming Back as Whole, in My Will, within you. This was Important and Indispensable for Me - at My Very First Coming Out to the light of this world, I Was to Restore the Rights of Creation and Receive the Glory as if the creature had never departed from My Will. Therefore, the First Kiss and the First Gifts of My Tender Age were for you, Luisa."

And I: 'My Love, how could this be, if at that time I did not exist?' And Jesus: "In My Divine Will Everything Existed, and All things were One Single Point for Me. I Could See you then, just as I See you now, and All the Graces I Have Given you, Luisa, are nothing other than the Confirmation of What you Had Been Given from Eternity. And I Could See not only you, but in you, Luisa, I Saw My Little Family, which would Live in My Divine Will. How Happy I Felt! These Soothed My Crying, Warmed Me, and Surrounding Me Like a Crown, Defended Me from the perfidy of the other creatures."

Christmas Midnight Mass will be Celebrated for the Intentions of all the Apostles of the Most Holy Divine Will
