

One Who Lives in the Divine Will is Clothed Anew with the Garments of the New and Holy Adam

Paragraph 54 - II. The Stages of Revelation

“...And furthermore, wishing to open up the way to heavenly salvation, He (God) manifested Himself to our first parents from the very beginning.”⁶ He invited them to intimate communion with himself and clothed them with resplendent grace and justice. (32, 374) CCC

Baruch 5:2

God will clothe thee with the double garment of justice, and will set a crown on thy head of everlasting honour.

Job 30:3

Clothe thyself with beauty, and set thyself up on high and be glorious, and put on goodly garments.

From the Book of Heaven

V19 – Feb. 28, 1926 – “By Entering into It (the Divine Will), the soul Forms One Single Act With the Divine Will, and as though Naturally she Takes Part in What It Does and Contains. More so, since in order to Live in My Divine Will, the soul is first Stripped of the garments of the old guilty Adam, and is Clothed Anew with the Garments of the New and Holy Adam. Her Garment is the Light of the Supreme Will Itself, through which All Its Divine Manners are Communicated to her, which are Noble and Communicative to all. This Light Makes her lose the human features and Restores in her the Physiognomy of her Creator. What is the wonder, then, if you, Luisa, Take Part in All that the Divine Will Possesses, since One is the Life and One the Will? Therefore, Be Attentive. I Recommend to you - be Always Faithful to Me, and your Jesus will Keep the Pace of Making you Live Always in My Will. I will be On Guard, that you May Never go out of It.”

FIAT!