From the Virgin Mary in the Kingdom of the Divine Will

Day 26

Now, pay attention to Me and listen. Listen, my child: a new life of sorrow, of loneliness and of long separations from my Highest Good, Jesus, begins for your Mama. His hidden life is ended, and He feels the irresistible need of love to go out in public, to make Himself known, and to go in search of man, lost in the maze of his will, and prey to all evils. Dear Saint Joseph had already died; Jesus was leaving, and I remained alone in the little house.

When My beloved Jesus asked Me for the obedience to leave – because He did nothing without first telling Me – I felt a blow in my Heart, but knowing that that was the Supreme Will, immediately I pronounced my Fiat - I did not hesitate one instant; and with the Fiat of my Son, and my own, We separated. In the ardor of our love, He blessed Me, and He left Me. I accompanied Him with My gaze while I could, and then, withdrawing, I abandoned Myself in that Divine Will which was My Life. But - Oh, Power of the Divine Fiat! This Holy Will never let Me lose sight of My Son, nor did He lose Me; on the contrary, I felt His heartbeat in Mine, and Jesus felt Mine in His.”

From the Book of Heaven

V20 – Feb. 16, 1927 - “Therefore, the operating in My Will is the greatest miracle, and the fullness of all acts united together, and the triumph of the Divine Act in the human act, because My Will was as though sterile in the midst of creatures, and is now made happy by Its first daughter, in whom It sees the many births from Itself that will come to light. So, It will live no more as a sterile mother in the midst of the people, but as a mother fecund with many children. It once was a widow, because in creating the first man It espoused the human nature, dowering it with the immense riches of Its Will, as the seal of the marriage It formed with man. As he withdrew from It, It remained a widow for many centuries; but now It has removed the mourning of Its widowhood and, marrying again, has taken on Its garments of bride again, and has put out, once again, Its dowries into the field; and the seal of the dowries are the knowledges about It, through which It gives the gift of the riches It possesses.”
