Saint John 1:43-51

Jesus decided to go to Galilee, and he found Philip. And Jesus said to him, "Follow me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the town of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the one about whom Moses wrote in the law, and also the prophets, Jesus, son of Joseph, from Nazareth." But Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said of him, "Here is a true Israelite. There is no duplicity in him." Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, I saw you under the fig tree." Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel."

Jesus answered and said to him, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than this." And he said to him, "Amen, amen, I say to you, you will see the sky opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

1038 ...Then Christ will come "in his glory, and all the Angels with Him . . . . Before Him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and He will place the sheep at His right Hand, but the goats at the left. . . ."625

V25 – March 31, 1929 - "If Adam had not sinned, the Eternal Word, who is the very Will of the Celestial Father, was to come upon earth Glorious, Triumphant and Dominator, accompanied visibly by His Angelic Army, that All were to see; and with the Splendor of His Glory, He was to Charm everyone and draw everyone to Himself with His Beauty; Crowned as King and with the Scepter of Command, so as to be King and Head of the human family, in such a Way as to give creatures the great Honor of being able to say: 'We have a King who is Man and God.'
