John 21: 15-19

Jesus showed himself to his disciples, and after they had eaten he said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love Me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love You.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed My lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love Me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love You.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after My sheep.' Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love Me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord, You know everything; You know I love You.'

Jesus said to him, 'Feed My sheep. 'I tell you most solemnly, when you were young you put on your own belt and walked where you liked; but when you grow old you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt round you and take you where you would rather not go.'

In these words he indicated the kind of death by which Peter would give glory to God. After this he said, 'Follow Me.'

III. The Mysteries of Jesus' Public Life (CCC)
"The Keys of the Kingdom"

553 Jesus entrusted a specific authority to Peter: "I will give you the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven."<sup>287</sup> The "Power of the Keys" designates authority to govern the House of God, which is the Church. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, confirmed this mandate after His Resurrection: "Feed My sheep."<sup>288</sup> The Power to "bind and loose" connotes the authority to absolve sins, to pronounce doctrinal judgments, and to make disciplinary decisions in the Church. Jesus entrusted this authority to the Church through the ministry of the apostles<sup>289</sup> and in particular through the ministry of Peter, the only one to whom He specifically entrusted the Keys of the Kingdom.

V6 – Mar. 2, 1905 - Jesus gives Luisa the key of His Will.

Continuing in my usual state, I found myself outside of myself, and I found myself with a Key in my hand; and even though I was covering a long way and sometimes I would get distracted, yet, as soon as I would think about the Key, I would always find it in my hand. Now, I could see that this Key served to open a palace, and inside of it there was Baby Jesus, sleeping; but I could see everything from afar, and I was all in haste – in a hurry to go there and open it, for fear that He might wake up, that He might cry, and would not find me near Him. So I hastened more and more, but when I got there, just about to go up, I found myself inside myself, and I remained concerned. However, afterwards, when blessed Jesus came, He told me: “My daughter, the key that you always found in your hand is the Key of My Will which I have placed in your hands; and one who has an object in his hand can do with it whatever he wants.”

V7 – Jul. 3, 1906 – “...The Will of God is the only Key that opens the Treasures of the Divine Secrets, and the soul acquires such familiarity in the House of God as to dominate as if she were the owner.”

V7 – Jul. 17, 1906 - This morning I saw blessed Jesus with a Key in His Hand, and He said to me: "My daughter, this Key is the Key of My Will. It befits one who Lives in My Will to have the Key in order to open and close as she pleases, and to take whatever she likes of My Treasures. In fact, by Living of My Will, she will look after My Treasures more than if they were her own, because all that is Mine is hers, and she will not spoil them; rather, she will give them to others, or will take for herself whatever can give Me more Honor and Glory. Therefore, behold, I Deliver the Key to you Luisa – look after My Treasures."

V12 – Jan. 25, 1919 - "My daughter, My Will is Light and one who Lives of It becomes Light, and as Light, she Enters easily into My most Pure Light, having the Key to open and take whatever she wants. But in order to be able to open, a key must be without rust or mud; and the lock itself must be of iron, otherwise the key cannot open. In the same way, to be able to open with the Key of My Will, the soul must not mix the rust of her own will, nor a shadow of the mud of earthly things. Only in this way can we combine ourselves together - she can make whatever she wants of Me, and I whatever I want of her."
