

Upright Operating

Obedience Communicates Divine Strength

III. Christ Offered Himself to His Father for Our Sins (CCC)

Jesus substitutes His Obedience for our disobedience

615 "For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by One Man's Obedience many will be made righteous."⁴⁴³ By His Obedience unto death, Jesus accomplished the substitution of the suffering Servant, who "makes himself an offering for sin," when "He bore the sin of many," and who "shall make many to be accounted righteous," for "He shall bear their iniquities."⁴⁴⁴ Jesus atoned for our faults and made satisfaction for our sins to the Father.⁴⁴⁵

Romans 5:19 - "For as by the disobedience of one man, many were made sinners; so also by the obedience of one, many shall be made just."

1 Peter 1:13-14 - Wherefore having the loins of your mind girt up, being sober, trust perfectly in the grace which is offered you in the revelation of Jesus Christ, [14] As children of obedience, not fashioned according to the former desires of your ignorance:

From the Book of Heaven

V7 – 10.4.06 - Having received the Obedience to speak only a few words if anyone came, I was concerned I had failed the Obedience, and added to that, Blessed Jesus was not coming. Who can say the torment of my soul – thinking that He was not coming because I had committed sin. His privation is always a cruel torment, but the thought of having provided the occasion for it because of some fault, is a torment that makes one go mad and kills with one blow.

Then, after I struggled very much, He came and touched me three times, telling me: "My daughter, I renew you in the Power of the Father, in My Wisdom, and in the Love of the Holy Spirit." What I felt as He was saying this I am unable to express. Then He seemed to lie down within me, placing His Head Crowned with Thorns upon my heart, and He added: "Upright operating keeps Divine Love always lit within the soul, while the operating which is not upright keeps putting it out, and if it tries to light it, now comes the breath of love of self and puts it out, now human respect, now self-esteem, now the breath of the desire to please others... In sum, many breaths always keep putting it out; while with the upright operating, it is not many breaths that Light this Divine Fire in the soul, but One Continuous Breath which keeps it always lit – and it is only the Omnipotent Breath of a God."

V7 – 11.20.06 - My poor state continues, full of bitterness because of the almost continuous privations that I suffer, but also of peace. I saw Him just flashing by, telling me: "My daughter, Obedience is an unshakable wall, and such it renders the soul. Not only this, but in order to be unshakable, it is necessary for one to be strong and robust, and Obedience communicates Divine Strength, in such a way that, in the face of the Divine Strength it possesses, all things are weak; so much so, that while Obedience can move anything, nothing can move it." And He vanished away.
