

Sufferings and Crosses are Like Citations that Jesus Sends to Souls

I. Christ's Whole Life Is Mystery (CCC)

Our communion in the mysteries of Jesus

520 In all of His Life Jesus presents Himself as our Model. He is "the Perfect Man,"¹⁹¹ Who invites us to become His disciples and follow Him. In humbling Himself, He has given us an example to imitate, through His prayer He draws us to pray, and by His poverty He calls us to accept freely the privation and persecutions that may come our way.¹⁹²

Matthew 10:38 - "And he that taketh not up his cross, and followeth Me, is not worthy of Me."

Mark 8:3-4 - "And calling the multitude together with His disciples, He said to them: If any man will follow Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me."

From the Book of Heaven

V6 – 3.5.04 - "My daughter, sufferings, crosses, are like many citations which I send to souls. If the soul accepts these citations - whether they are citations that notify the soul to pay some debt, or it is a notification to obtain some gain for Eternal Life - if the soul responds to Me by resigning herself to My Will, by thanking Me, by adoring My Holy Dispositions, we are immediately in accord, and the soul will avoid many inconveniences that are possible, like being cited again, having advocates involved, going through the suit, and receiving the condemnation of the Judge. Responding to the citation with resignation and with thanksgiving alone will make up for all this, because the cross will be citation, advocate and judge for her, with nothing else needed for her to take possession of the Eternal Kingdom. If then she does not accept these citations - think about it, yourself, into how many abysses of disgraces and troubles she throws herself, and what the rigor of the Judge will be in condemning her for having shunned the cross as her Judge - so much milder, more compassionate, more prone to enriching her rather than Judging her, more intent on embellishing her rather than condemning her."
