

Fruit of Redemption Fruit of the Divine Will

August 16

V. The Spirit and the Church in the Last Days (CCC)

The Spirit manifests the risen Lord to them, recalls his word to them and opens their minds to the understanding of his Death and Resurrection. He makes present the mystery of Christ, supremely in the Eucharist, in order to reconcile them, to bring them into communion with God, that they may “bear much fruit.”¹³²

Matthew 12:33

Either make the tree good and its fruit good: or make the tree evil, and its fruit evil. For by the fruit the tree is known.

From the Book of Heaven

V19 – March 19, 1926 – “...Therefore, placing a Divine Will in safety in the midst of creatures is the greatest thing, and My Will, known and reigning, will surpass the Fruits of Creation and of Redemption; It will be the crowning of My works and the triumph of Our works. And if My Will is not known, loved and fulfilled, neither Creation nor Redemption will obtain their full purpose and their complete Fruit..."

"...Now, You Must Know that My Will is greater and more endless than Redemption Itself; and what is greater always brings greater Fruits and goods. My Will is eternal in time and eternity - It had no beginning, nor will It ever end. On the other hand, though being eternal in the divine mind, Redemption had Its beginning in time, and was a product of the Eternal Will. So, it was not Redemption that gave life to the Divine Will, but it was My Will that gave life to Redemption; and whatever has the power to give life, by nature and by necessity must become more Fruitful than the one who has received life..."

V19 - Jun. 6,1926 - "...My Redemption was to serve to plant the tree of My Will which, watered with My Blood, cultivated and hoed with My sweats and unheard-of pains, fertilized with the Sacraments, first would make the tree develop, then would make the flowers bloom, and finally would make the celestial Fruits of My Will mature. And in order to make these precious Fruits mature, the course of My thirty-three years was not enough, nor were the creatures prepared and disposed to receive a food so delicate, all of Heaven, which I was giving. Therefore I contented Myself with planting the tree, leaving all possible means to make it grow, beautiful and gigantic; and at the appropriate time, as the Fruits are about to mature and so that they may be picked, I chose you in a way all special, to make known to you the good it contains, and how I want to raise the creature back to her origin. Banishing her will, the cause for which she descended from her happy state, she will eat of these precious Fruits, which will give her such taste as to remove from her all the infection of passions and of her own will, and give back the dominion to My Will..."
