

The Light of the Divine Will shall Unleash Its Most Refulgent Rays

September 10

II. The Visible World

339 Each creature possesses its own particular goodness and perfection. For each one of the works of the “six days” it is said: “And God saw that it was good.” “By the very nature of creation, material being is endowed with its own stability, truth, and excellence, its own order and laws.”²⁰⁸ Each of the various creatures, willed in its own being, reflects in its own way a ray of God’s infinite wisdom and goodness...

Tobias 13:13

[11] Jerusalem, city of God, the Lord hath chastised thee for the works of thy hands. [12] Give glory to the Lord for thy good things, and bless the God eternal, that he may rebuild his tabernacle in thee, and may call back all the captives to thee, and thou mayst rejoice for ever and ever. [13] Thou shalt shine with a glorious light: and all the ends of the earth shall worship thee.

From the Book of Heaven

V24 – June 12, 1928 - “My daughter, My Will can do anything. Just as It made man from nothing, so It can draw the new man from his miseries. And without changing method from the way in which we created him, leaving him his free will, We will use another loving device: the light of Our Will shall unleash Its most refulgent rays more strongly; It will draw close, in such a way as to look the human will in the face, which will receive the enchantment of a penetrating light that, while dazzling it, sweetly draws it to Itself. And the human will, attracted by a light so radiant and of rare beauty, will have the desire to see what is so beautiful in this light. In looking, it will undergo the enchantment, it will feel happy and will love—not being forced, but spontaneously—to live in Our Will.

“Does the light of sun not have this virtue—that if one wants to fix on it, the pupil of the human eye remains dazzled in the light; and if it tries to look, it will see nothing but light, and the power of the light prevents the pupil from looking at the things around it? And if man is forced to lower his eyes to be freed of the light, it is because the excessive light hinders him and he does not feel happy; but if he felt happy, he would not easily withdraw his pupils from within the light of the sun.

“On the other hand, the light of My Will shall not hinder the pupils of the soul; on the contrary, she will have the good of seeing the very human acts converted into light, and will yearn for this light to unleash its rays more strongly so as to see her acts with the enchantment and the beauty of this Divine Light. My Will has the power to solve the problem of man, but It must use a more excessive act of greater magnanimity of Our Supreme Fiat; therefore, you, pray and plead a cause so holy for poor creatures.”
