Saint Matthew 11:16-19

Jesus said to the crowds: "To what shall I compare this generation? It is like children who sit in marketplaces and call to one another, 'We played the flute for you, but you did not dance, we sang a dirge but you did not mourn.'

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they said, 'He is possessed by a demon.'

The Son of Man came eating and drinking and they said, 'Look, he is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.' But wisdom is vindicated by her works."

The mystery of God's apparent powerlessness (CCC)

272 ...Christ crucified is thus "the Power of God and the Wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is Wiser than men, and the weakness of God is Stronger than men."111

From the Book of Heaven

V35 – Sept. 20, 1937 – "...Our Wisdom is such that It always does New Things. We enclose Ourselves in the soul within whom Our Will Reigns, and—largely—We pour out Our Love. We centralize all that We have done, all that We do and will do, repeating in the soul Our Most Beautiful Works, the Outpouring of Our Love, and the New inventions of Our Wisdom—so many that the creature cannot count them. O, how many touching scenes We make! She becomes the theater of Our Love, the deposit of Our Unceasing Works, the refuge for Our Delights, Joys and Happiness, the hiding place for Our Celestial and arcane Secrets—the display of Our various Beauties. Do you know why? To enjoy them together, since nothing can be missing of Our Works where Our Will Reigns..."
