

Jesus Must Preach Always
Gospel Reading for January 11, 2017
With Divine Will Truths
Saint Mark 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them. When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you."

He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

"The Kingdom of God is at hand" (CCC)

541 "Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying: 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent, and believe in the gospel.'"246

From the Book of Heaven

V14 - Feb. 14, 1922 - "My daughter, do you know why I AM so content? All My Joy, My Feast, is when I see you write. I see My Glory, My Life and the Knowledge of Me that multiplies more and more, being inscribed in those written words. The Light of the Divinity, the Power of My Will, the Outpouring of My Love... - I see everything written on paper, and in each word I feel the fragrance of All My Perfumes. Then I see those written words run - run in the midst of the peoples, to bring New Knowledges, My Outpouring Love, the Secrets of My Will... Oh, how I rejoice! - so much that I don't know what I would do to you when you write! And as you write New Things that regard Me, I keep inventing new favors in order to repay you, and I dispose Myself to tell you new truths so as to give you new favors.

I have Always Loved more and reserved greater Graces for the ones who have written about Me, because they are the continuation of My Evangelical Life - the spokesmen of My Word. That which I did not say in My Gospel, I reserved to say to those who would write about Me. I did not finish Preaching at that time - I Must Preach Always, as long as the generations will exist."

And I: 'My Love, to write the Truths that You tell me is a sacrifice; but the sacrifice becomes harder, and I almost feel no strength to make it, when I am obligated and when they force me to write of my intimacies between You and me, and of things that regard me. I don't know what I would do so as not to put the pen on paper.' And Jesus: "You remain always aside; it is always about Me that you speak: what I do to you, how much I Love you, and where My Love toward creatures reaches. This will push others to Love Me, so that they too may receive the Good that I do to you. Besides, this mixing you and Me in writing is also necessary, otherwise some might say: 'To whom did He say this? To whom was He so generous in lavishing His Favors? Maybe to the wind, to the air?' Is it not said that in My Life I was so very generous with My Mama? That I spoke to the Apostles, to the crowds, and that I healed such and such sick person? Therefore, everything is Necessary; and be sure that, in what you write, it is Always Me that you make Known more."
