

Man was to Serve to Maintain God's Amusement on the Face of the Earth

*Gospel Reading for February 21, 2017
With Divine Will Truths*

Mark 9:30-37

Jesus and His disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because He was instructing His disciples; He was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put Him to death; and three days after He has been put to death He will Rise again.' But they did not understand what He said and were afraid to ask Him.

They came to Capernaum, and when He was in the house He asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So He sat down, called the Twelve to Him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put His Arms round Him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in My Name, welcomes Me; and anyone who welcomes Me welcomes not Me but the One Who sent Me.'

From the Book of Heaven

V20 – Nov. 20, 1926 - "My daughter, in Creating the creature, as We were forming him with Our Creative Hands, We felt a Joy, a Contentment come out of Our Womb, because he was to serve to maintain Our Amusement on the face of the earth, and Our continuous Feast. So, as We formed his feet, We thought that they were to serve Our Kisses, because they were to enclose Our Steps and were to be Our means of Encounter, to Amuse ourselves together. As We formed his hands, We thought that they were to serve Our Kisses and Embraces, because We were to see in him the repeater of Our Works.

“As We formed his mouth, his heart, that were to serve the Echo of Our Word and of Our Love, and as We infused life in him with Our Breath, in seeing that that Life had come out of Us—it was a life completely Our Own, We clasped him to Our Womb and Kissed him, as the Confirmation of Our Work and of Our Love. And so that he might maintain himself whole in Our Steps, in Our Works, in the Echo of Our Word and Love, and of the Life of Our Image impressed in him, We gave him Our Divine Will as Inheritance, that It might Preserve him just as We had delivered him, so as to be able to continue Our Amusements, Our Affectionate Kisses, Our Sweet Conversations with the Work of Our Hands.

“When We see Our Will in the creature, We see in her Our Steps, Our Works, Our Love, Our Words, Our Memory and Intellect, because We know that Our Supreme Will shall let nothing enter that is not Our Own. Therefore, being Our Own, We give her everything—Kisses, Caresses, Favors, Love, Tenderness more than Paternal—nor do We feel like remaining even at one step of distance from her; more so, since even the slightest distances cannot form the continuous Amusements, nor exchange Kisses, nor share the most Intimate and Secret Joys.”
