With Divine Will Truths
Matthew 5:33-37*

Jesus said to his disciples: "You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all; not by heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the Evil One."

Article 2 THE SECOND COMMANDMENT (CCC)

II. Taking the Name of the Lord in Vain

2153 In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus explained the second commandment: "You have heard that it was said to the men of old, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord what you have sworn.' But I say to you, Do not swear at all. . . . Let what you say be simply 'Yes' or 'No'; anything more than this comes from the evil one."⁸² Jesus teaches that every oath involves a reference to God and that God's presence and His Truth must be honored in all speech. Discretion in calling upon God is allied with a respectful awareness of his presence, which all our assertions either witness to or mock.

From the Book of Heaven

V34 – Jun. 28, 1937 - "Daughter, am I not Master to do and to give what I want? It is enough that I want it, and everything is done. And then, also in the low world things happen that in some way resemble this. If a man gives his name in writing to the army of the government, this, in order to be secure of him, makes him swear fidelity to the government. This oath makes him remain bound to the army. He dresses with the uniform of the militia in a way that it is recognized by everyone that he belongs to the army. And when he has shown ability and fidelity, he receives the salary for life. With this salary that no one can take away from him, he lacks nothing. He can have servants who serve him, he can live with all the comforts of life, and although, with time, he would retire in rest. And what thing has this man given to the government? Only the external part of his life that gave him the right to receive the pay during his life.

“On the other hand, one who with firm decision has given her will to Me, has given Me the most noble, most precious, part, that is, her will. In it she has given Me all the interior and exterior, even the breath, and with this she has merited to be written in the Divine Army in a way that everyone will know that she belongs to Our Militia. How could I let her lack anything, how not to Love her? If this could be, it would have been the Greatest Sorrow for your Jesus, it would have taken away the Peace that I possess by Nature, to not Love she who has given Me everything and who with Indescribable Love I possess. I keep her in My Heart, and I let her have My Life itself.”
