Matthew 25: 1-13

Jesus told His disciples this parable "The Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!'

Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'

But the wise ones replied, 'No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.'

While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!'

But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Article 12 I BELIEVE IN LIFE EVERLASTING (CCC)

IV. Hell

1036 ...Since we know neither the day nor the hour, we should follow the advice of the Lord and watch constantly so that, when the single course of our earthly life is completed, we may merit to enter with him into the marriage feast and be numbered among the blessed, and not, like the wicked and slothful servants, be ordered to depart into the eternal fire, into the outer darkness where "men will weep and gnash their teeth."⁶¹⁹

From the Book of Heaven

V3 – June 24, 1900 - After going through a few days of privation - at the most, a few shadows and flashes – I felt all of my powers asleep, in such a way that I myself could not understand what was happening in my interior. In this sleepiness, only one pain was awake in my interior, and it was the fact that it seemed it had happened to me as to one who, while sleeping, loses his sight or is deprived of all his riches. The miserable one can neither grieve, nor defend himself, nor use some means to free himself of his misfortunes. Poor one, in what a pitiful state he finds himself! But what is the cause of it? His sleep. Because if he had been awake, he would certainly have known how to defend himself well from his misfortunes.

'...Ah, Lord, wake me up Yourself, that I may see my miseries, and know at least of what I am being deprived!'

V24 – June 3, 1928 - “The human will keeps poor man as though asleep; he sleeps, and the sleep prevents him from feeling and seeing all the caresses and finesses of Love that His Celestial Father gives him, as well as the surprises He wants to make known to him. His sleep prevents him from receiving the Joys, the Happiness, that His Creator wants to give him, and from comprehending the Sublime State of his Creation.

“Poor man, asleep to True Good, and deaf to listening to My Will, which is his Revealer, his Noble History, his Origin, his Marvelous Height and Beauty. And if he feels any vigil, it is either for sin, for his passions, or for things that do not have an Eternal Origin. He acts just like that sleeping child who, if he wakes up, cries, makes fusses and torments the poor father, who almost regrets having a child so restless.

“And this is why My Divine Will is revealing so many of Its Knowledges—to wake man up from his long sleep, so that, waking up in My Fiat, he may lose the sleep of the human will, he may reacquire what he lost, and may feel the kisses, the love, the loving squeezes that His Creator gives him to His Bosom. So, each Knowledge that regards My Divine Will is a Call, it is a Voice that I emit, it is a Cry that I send, to wake man up from the sleep of the human will.”
