

Most Sublime Humility – Losing Every Reason

IV. How Can We Speak about God?

42 God transcends all creatures. We must therefore continually purify our language of everything in it that is limited, image- bound or imperfect, if we are not to confuse our image of God— “the inexpressible, the incomprehensible, the invisible, the ungraspable”—with our human representations.¹⁶ Our human words always fall short of the mystery of God.

Mark 8:17 - "Which Jesus knowing, saith to them: Why do you reason, because you have no bread? do you not yet know nor understand? have you still your heart blinded?"

From the Book of Heaven

V3 - 6.20.00 - "...As for the rest, I do not want you to think about it, because the most Perfect, the most Sublime Humility is that of losing every reason and of not discoursing on 'why' and 'how', but of undoing oneself in one's own nothingness. And while the soul does this, without realizing it, she finds herself Dissolved in God, and this produces in the soul the Union most Intimate, the Love most Perfect toward her Highest Good. This, however, to the greatest advantage of the soul, because in losing her own reason, she acquires Divine Reason, and in losing every discoursing about herself – whether she is cold or warm, whether the things that happen to her are favorable or adverse – she will be interested in and will acquire a Language fully Celestial and Divine. In addition to this, Humility produces a Garment of Safety in the soul, in such a way that, wrapped in this Garment of Safety, the soul remains in the most profound Calm, Embellishing all of herself in order to be Pleasing to her Dearest and Beloved Jesus."
